3 Week #1 and 3 New Debuts!

Dear Readers;

Well, Memorial Day is behind us and that means it's full on summer. Things are hot in Nashville, and getting hotter. The music we are hearing and sending you is fantastic and it makes us very excited for the format. On to some congratulatory messages for some incredible chart action.

THOMAS RHETT "T-Shirt" Valory Music Co. (BMLG) is the hottest thing in the country again this week and posts a third week #1! Awesome job and congratulations to Valory Music Co. (BMLG)

BRAD PAISLEY (FEATURING DEMI LOVATO) "Without A Fight" Arista Nashville (SMN) is the most added with 27 adds this week!

A hearty congrats to the following making their chart debut this week!

CRAIG MORGAN/I'll Be Home Soon/Black River Entertainment

DIERKS BENTLEY (FEATURING ELLE KING)/Different For Girls /Capitol Records Nashville (UMGN)

KEITH WALKER/Friends With Boats/Keith Walker Music

FLORIDA GEORGIA LINE "H.O.L.Y." Republic Nashville (BMLG) is the greatest spin gainer of the week with a whopping 610 spin increase!

We would like to invite you to be a part of the early group enjoying access to the TRACtion data interface to be able to see the detection data by station, by song, or by artist. Please email me at joe@cdxcd.com for more information. Also, we will begin a Going For Adds feature in the coming weeks. If you have a single release planned, send us the music file for encoding and include the artist name, label name, and impact date. We will encode the song for detection and list your single in the Going For Adds feature.

We will have a huge announcement very soon regarding the TRACtion Texas chart launch and name the chart director! Lastly, I want to reach out in the coming weeks to each and every station on the CDX TRACtion chart panel and personally thank each and every one of you. I will be asking for your feedback and unvarnished opinions and ideas. Talk to you soon.

Stay tuned,

Joe Kelly

Volume 634 Reviews

Jerrod Niemann (featuring Lee Brice) – “A Little More Love”

On his debut single with Curb Records Jerrod offers sage advice about the real priorities of life in a fun, irresistible island-inspired song. He rapsodizes about our working too much and playing too little. How's that working for you, Bunky? You “wanna be happy for the rest of your life...make a little more love and make a little less money”. You won't miss it but ‘you'll miss the time you didn't take’. And did I mention that he and Lee Brice harmonize like rum and coke; like tequila and lime; like a hangover and a bloody mary? Oh yea, mon.

Dierks Bentley (featuring Elle King) – “Different for Girls”

Dierks' last single for Capitol Records Nashville explored how a guy got over a break up. In that case it involved drinking all day and partying all night long somewhere on a beach with his new girl whose ‘got it going on’. His new single, “Different For Girls”, thoughtfully delves into the differences between the sexes when it comes to handling lost love. It occurred to me while listening to the song that, funny enough, the one common thread is girls....men need new ones to get over the old ones and women need their girls to rally round and help get them over the heartbreak hump. It's “different for girls, nobody said it was fair”. Right on, Dierks.

Gary Allan – “Do You Wish It Was Me”

Gary co-wrote his new EMI Records Nashville single with the appropriately named Jonathan Singleton and Andrew Dorff. It's about a man yearning to be part of his girl's world again and wondering if she thinks of him as she goes through everyday life. Although this sexy, driving song is that classic Gary Allan sound, the subject matter brought to mind the beautiful Keith Whitley classic “Don't Close Your Eyes” which, of course, I had to stop and listen to as well. Gary, any girl would be crazy not to heed your pleas...rock on you sexy thing.

The Last Bandoleros – “Where Do You Go”

WOW! “Where Do You Go” when Tex Mex meets Brit Pop and Country Rock? You jump on board The Last Bandoleros train because along for the ride are musical influences as varied as Flaco, The Beatles, Doug Sahm, Raul Malo and Van Halen. I'm hearing some Dwight, Jo-El and The Everlys among other greats too. This first single from the new Warner Music Nashville group will make you have more fun than a barrel of monkeys with a stack of bananas. Word has it the group is touring with The Mavericks this summer and this, my friend, will be an evening – and a new band - not to miss.

Pat Green – “Day One”

Time heals all wounds...or so we are told. Pat might agree if he can ‘just get through “Day One”’. As we all do at some point in life, Pat Green has finally come full circle -- and all the way back Home, which also happens to be the title of his new Greenhorse Music album and his first set of originals in several years. Along the road there have been six albums in eight years, hit singles like “Wave on Wave” and “Let Me”, over 2 million albums sold, three Grammy nominations and touring with powerhouses like Kenny Chesney and Keith Urban. Welcome home, Pat. We've been with you since “Day One”.

Craig Morgan - “I'll Be Home Soon”

This new Black River Entertainment single was produced by Craig and Byron Gallimore from Craig's new CD, A Whole Lot More To Me, out on June 3rd. Damn, Craig...you've become a consumable product like fine wine and cheese.....getting better and better as time goes by. Talk about going into the studio and giving it all you've got and THEN some. And what woman (or man for that fact) isn't going to love what you've got to say in this song....that the person who loves you has your proverbial back....they are going to ‘make the world go away’ when they get home to you. Well to that I say, the door is open....come on home....we'll open that bottle of fine Craig Morgan wine.

Darryl Worley – “Rainmaker”

Last February when Cyclone Winston stormed the island nation of Fiji, country star Darryl Worley and his wife Kimberly were on the island to perform at “Tunes in the Tropics.” “This storm has changed the island nation of Fiji forever... it also changed our lives forever,” says Worley. He wrote and recorded “Rainmaker” after surviving the storm. With an infectious melody, “Rainmaker” compares the love for the beautiful island of Fiji to the desire and love for a beautiful woman. With funds generated from the single downloads, Worley will make donations to the Cyclone Winston relief fund. It's on Worleybird Records - download it from iTunes and Amazon.com, play it, enjoy it and help Fiji recover.

Dyonna Ponder- “Call Me Sassafras”

Kiss my sassy frassy – this is a sassy cup o' tea. On her first single with CMM Records Nashville, Dyonna embodies the true country girl's free spirited, rebellious attitude with a “hand on the hip” sassiness. Pour yourself a tall glass of something cold and kick back with your sassafras.

Scott Brantley - “How Summer Goes”

In his latest offering from Studio Gold Nashville, Scott's single craftily describes a summer romance by using comparisons of all things summer... piers, bare feet, silver moons in the heat of June, kites on the shore. With the opening line you are taken back to a simpler time, recalling a summer love that ended too soon. “Ain't it funny how 90 days can hit you like a tidal wave when you're standing there knowing that it's gotta end.” What doesn't have to end is enjoying this tune over and over again. See you in September.

Jessie Chris – “In The Meantime”

We all face adversity. It's part of the human experience – the part that is supposed to make us stronger. Jessie was the victim of extreme bullying & music was her way of coping with life's experiences. As a co-writer of “In The Meantime” released on Jessie Chris Music, Jessie is obviously wise beyond her years and able to look past the pettiness and smallness of others to a brighter future. Her favorite quote: “dreams come a size too big so we can grow into them”. Rock on, Jessie, “In The Meantime”, we will enjoy watching you spread your wings. Fly high, fly proud.

Peyton Davis - "Nowhere America"

In her debut single on Carole Davis Music, University of Texas grad Peyton Davis sings of the goings-on in small town, rural America. If bonfires, riverbank tailgates and midnight skinny dipping, popping a cold one and enjoying moonlit summer nights till the sun comes up is what goes on in "Nowhere America" then I want to find it on the map and head there now to become a small town gypsy myself. I'll bring my squeeze box.

Ben Cesare - "Radio Love Song"

Music, flowers, diamonds – all great ways to beg forgiveness. In "Radio Love Song" on Ben Cesare Entertainment, Ben meaningfully and urgently pleads for mercy from his girl with this melodic tune. Turn it up and take a listen and you'll surely fall in love. Let's hope his girl feels the same.

Cody Johnson - "With You I Am"

The first single from Cody's upcoming August 5th release of his new Cojo Music album, Gotta Be Me, was written by Cody, Trent Willmon and David Lee. The song is a beautifully crafted ode to the extraordinary power of how the right love can lift us beyond both our real and self-imposed shortcomings to be the person we were meant to be. While listening to it I found myself with my eyes closed and body swaying to the beautifully produced track while letting Cody's incredible vocal delivery transport me to a happy place where all music is this good (and, of course, where true love is attainable for us all).

TESTIMONIALS

"We released a single to radio and launched it to stations using The Test Drive. It was the first visual of "I Love This Life" that radio and fans got to see. Now, we are celebrating a Top 10 national Billboard hit with this song, but we always remember it had to start somewhere and that was on The Test Drive."

-Preston Brust,
member of LOCASH

"The Test Drive helped expose my music to program directors that initially would not give my song a listen. Having listeners hear it on the station's website really made a difference in getting the station to add my single, which went to #10 on the Music Row chart. I think The Test Drive along with my promoters working hand in hand really helped deliver a Top 10 single for an independent artist."

-Erica Nicole

"I think The Test Drive is one of the coolest things I have done in a long time. Having hits in the 80s, I thought I would never see my songs or projects showcased with radio today. Boy, I was wrong! I did The Test Drive and got more Facebook posts and emails to my website than you could imagine. Fans thought I had retired, but once they saw me on those station websites, they realized I was still recording and touring. The Test Drive was invaluable to me in spreading the word on my new Legendary Friends & Duets project."

-T.G. Sheppard

"I first learned of The Test Drive from my radio promotions gal Jan Woods. She recommended that I use the service and it helped me land my first Top 40 single on the Music Row chart, with my debut single. I have used this service twice now, and my second single had gone Top 30. The Test Drive gave me exposure in front of these radio programmers that I otherwise would not have received."

-Denny Strickland

"I love the concept of The Test Drive. It allows us at Curb Records to showcase our artists to radio stations that we may not get a chance to visit while on a radio tour. Getting the feedback from the stations on what their audience is saying about the single and artist is great information."

SHANE OWENS

Country Never Goes Out Of Style

What Folks Are Saying

"Shane's song, Country Never Goes Out of Style, is a simple and perfect description of what country living and country music is all about. In listening to it, I can't help but reminisce about the best days of my youth and life in simpler times—when technology was a phone with a cord and a party line, transportation was a bicycle, a horse, or a hand-me-down car with manual windows, and taking the initiative to help someone in need was your pleasure and just the way it was. Though much has changed, I think it's important to keep a focus on our roots—it is a way of life that should never go out of style. Shane has successfully merged yesterday, and today, to remind us that country will always be in style!"

Randy Travis

"Shane strikes again with his uber cool, note-bending vocals. The gently swaying tune is like a hammock in a spring breeze. And you can bet this pluperfect country stylist means every word of the lyric."

Robert K. Oermann

"Rarely do you get an out of the box reaction to a song like we have to Shane Owens' 'Country Never Goes Out Of Style'. Listeners are screaming for honest to goodness country and Shane gives it to them! Country is on the verge of another new traditionalists movement like we saw when Travis and Skaggs came on the scene and Shane Owens is poised to help lead the way to prove 'country never goes out of style.'"
