Just in time for Halloween
Jeff Coltre
"This Fictitious Story's True"
 Just off shore in the middle of the sea
 There is a barren island with tall Palm trees
 With storm clouds brewing in the clear blue sky
 It's where dead pirates go to die
 They love to party as they rest in peace
 They know how to live though they are deceased

One bright day in the middle of the night
 Two dead pirates got up to fight
 Back to back they faced each other
 Drew their guns and stabbed one another
 A deaf policeman heard their noise and killed those two dead pirate boys

One dark night in the middle of the day
 That deaf policeman heard me say
 This fictitious story's true
 The blind man said he saw it too
 His seeing eye dog is one cool cat
 And we are flying away on this survival raft

Just in time for the Halloween audience!

"This Fictitious Story's True"

Jeff Coltre shares a Halloween fantasy put to music inspired by an old folk poem that is so old nobody seems to know the original author. Jeff put his own Island dead pirate twist on it continuing with the contradictory theme of the original and featuring Nashville's finest musicians. We would appreciate your airplay and comments.
