Just in time for Halloween

Jeff Coltrec

"This Fictitious Story's True"

*Just off shore in the middle of the sea
There is a barren island with tall Palm trees
With storm clouds brewing in the clear blue sky
It's where dead pirates go to die
They love to party as they rest in peace
They know how to live though they are deceased*

*One bright day in the middle of the night
Two dead pirates got up to fight
Back to back they faced each other
Drew their guns and stabbed one another
A deaf policeman heard their noise and killed those two dead pirate boys*

*One dark night in the middle of the day
That deaf policeman heard me say
This fictitious story's true
The blind man said he saw it too
His seeing eye dog is one cool cat
And we are flying away on this survival raft*

"This Fictitious Story's True"

Jeff Coltrec shares a Halloween fantasy put to music inspired by an old folk poem that is so old nobody seems to know the original author. Jeff put his own Island dead pirate twist on it continuing with the contradictory theme of the original and featuring Nashville's finest musicians. We would appreciate your airplay and comments.

"Jeff Coltrec has combined a funky rockin' groove with a fun story song with 'This Fictitious Story's True.'
Fun, groovy tempo! Spin it!"
